

Alice Salomon Hochschule Berlin
University of Applied Sciences

Master of Arts

Social Work as a Human Rights Profession

(MA-SWHR)

Information on Scholarships

2019

ash-berlin.eu/swhr

Dear applicant,

This compilation of institutions to apply for funding is not meant to be complete. However, it provides an overview of institutions relevant to the Master of Arts in Social Work as a Human Rights Profession (MA-SWHR). Please note that the information is taken from the original website sources and changes might have occurred. Some of them are in German language. This does not automatically mean that only citizens from Germany may apply. In this case, I would suggest that you contact those organizations via e-mail.

Keep in mind their deadlines! Some deadlines are as early as September of the preceding year. Therefore, you should consult their websites well in advance to your application to find out if you meet the criteria.

The following text is an example that may be considered as a standard procedure with many of the foundations (“Stiftungen”). This might help you getting organized before starting your research.

Procedure for "Stiftungen":

First write a short letter stating who you are and why you are interested in their specific aims (see their homepage to check their agenda and whether this fits your own) and why you want to study the MA-SWHR. Remember to ask for their application forms and their deadlines as early as possible, even without being accepted to our graduate program. If a German embassy or a representative of the foundation you are interested in is near you, get their advice. Normally they prefer foreign students who are already in Germany. If you apply from abroad, they will only consider your application after our official confirmation and/ or offer of enrolment. You will also have to explain to them that you do not need the TestDaf/DSH German exam for studying at the MA-SWHR since this is an English language program.

Important Note:

We would like to inform all our applicants that, the Alice Salomon Hochschule Berlin does not offer the “Deutschland- Stipendium” to non-consecutive master programs including the MA- SWHR.

We wish you good luck with your scholarship application!
