

Three-part Thesis project

- A. Internship #1 (Akademie Für Ehrenamtlichkeit Deutschland)
- B. Internship #2 (United Nations Volunteers)
- C. Group Project (“Stepping In” Documentary Film)

Overview:

The thesis project took on an unexpected three-pronged model for me: while first engaged in a group film project with Rhoneil Gonzaga and Lisa Haring, I discovered an internship opportunity in Berlin with the ‘Akademie für Ehrenamtlichkeit’ Deutschland and committed to three months (spring/summer 2016) there. Shortly into this internship, I was offered a position I had applied for earlier in the year with UN Volunteers, and also promptly committed to taking on a three-month internship there in fall 2017. Having already been engaged with the film project, I dually completed the film and first internship, while focusing thereafter on the second internship.
