

The Scouts Club: Online interactions during the times of Covid 19

by: Jad Houeiss

Abstract

Lebanon declared a public state of emergency by March 15, 2020, due to the coronavirus. The order included a stay-at-home policy for non-essential movement alongside closing down schools, cafes, sports clubs and other public locations. A scouts movement part of a school named “Champville” there had to stop all kinds of activities they were part of after the school shutting down. This project aims to adapt online methods and engage with a group of people with intellectual disabilities belonging there. The outcome will be a video that includes other short videos shared by the participants while doing the activities and posted online on social media platforms.
