

Abstract

"Entre lenchas, vestidas y musculocas" is a performing arts festival organized by the Ministry of Culture of Mexico City dedicated to celebrating sexual diversity. The objective of this project was to collaborate with the festival as an advisor to integrate an intersectional perspective from a Human Rights approach. In order to carry it out, four talks, two workshops and one award in which common problems with other sectors of the population were linked in order to create meeting points with the LGBTIQ+ community. The final objective was, is and will be to continue working for the normalization of sexual diversity in society and the struggle for the defense of Human Rights in this and all communities.
