

Do Indians face racism and discrimination in Berlin?

by:

Parul Rohal

Abstract

This Human Rights project presents the experiences of Indians in Berlin through quantitative research, and also shows the violation of the Human Rights law by Germany in terms of racism and discrimination. This research presents that Indians in Berlin face racial discrimination for example due to their skin color and nationality, and also face discrimination due to language. It shows the importance of providing awareness about the human rights violation against immigrants in Berlin, and also awareness about the anti-discrimination counselling among the