ASH Pre-Study Programme for Refugees

For whom is the ASH Pre-Study Programme?

The ASH Pre-Study Programme prepares refugees that are not yet able to apply for a regular study programme at ASH Berlin, to finally enrol as a regular student.

What to expect from the ASH Pre-Study Programme?

The ASH Pre-Study Programme has a duration of 1 year (October to September) and consists of:

- German and study preparation course (level B2 until C1)
- Attendance of first seminars (credible for regular study programs)
- Completion of all study-specific admission requirements (such as the completion of a pre-internship)
- Support during the programme and with the application process provided by the ASH Refugee Office Team

How to apply for the ASH Pre-Study Programme?

Application process: 1st to 31st of July (every year)

Required documents are:

- Letter of Motivation (German or English, maximum 2 pages)
- Curriculum Vitae/ Résumé (English or German)
- Identity documents (copy)
- Certificate of completed language skills German, B1 (copy)
- University entrance qualification (copy); if these documents cannot be submitted, please contact the ASH Refugee Office for counselling via pre-studies@ash-berlin.eu
