

Advice regarding housing

We support you with the gathering of your documents needed to find an apartment.

We are also happy to show you how to find an apartment on your own or connect you with people, who can actively support you in your search.

Additionally, we provide hints about any issues regarding the search of room in a shared-apartment.

Advice regarding language

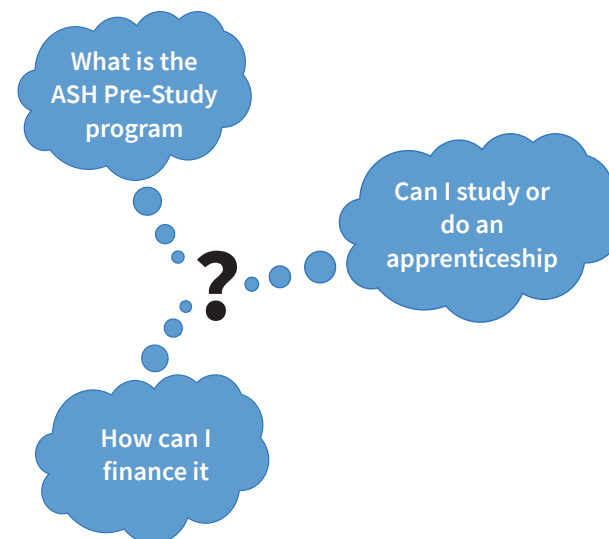

In Berlin, there is a variety of language learning options.

We support you, to find a language class that is according to your expectations and pre-requirements.

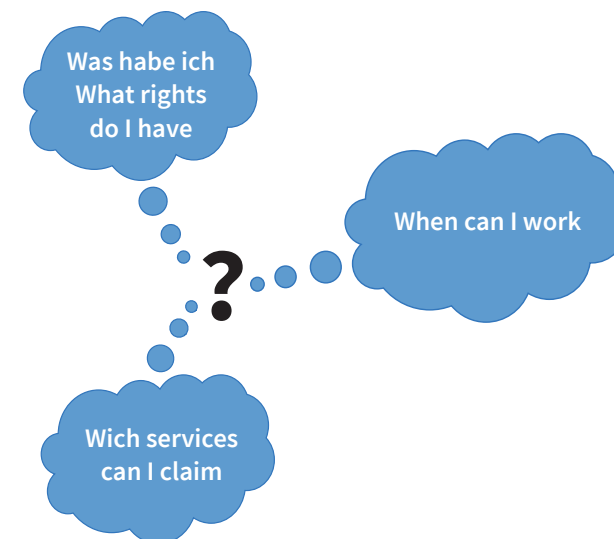

Our service includes questions of financing, childcare and access to online language classes by accessing an existing network of language learning options.

Advice regarding education

The different pathways in education and their pre-requisites are very complex. We are happy to give you advice about which options you have with your existing certificates of apprenticeship-, school- or university. We can establish the contact between you and contact persons of universities, centers of further education and apprenticeship offices. We also inform you which possibilities there are in regards to studying at ASH Berlin as well as on the possibilities given through the ASH Pre-Study Program.

Advice regarding legal assistance

We support you, to find the right advice in case you are in need of legal assistance.

Since we do not have a juridical education – legal advice cannot be provided - but a general orientation and connection to corresponding advisory institutions. Accessing a broad network helps us to forward you to many different legal advisory institutions specialized in various legal fields.
